

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BRENT SCRUGGS, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

MARS, INCORPORATED,

Defendant.

No. 2:22-cv-05617-JAK (AFMx)

JUDGMENT

JS-6: CASE TERMINATED

1 WHEREAS on November 9, 2023, this Court granted Defendant's Motion for
2 Partial Reconsideration of the May 22, 2023 Order GRANTING-IN-PART and
3 DENYING-IN-PART Defendant's Motion to Dismiss;

4 WHEREAS this Court VACATED-IN-PART its May 22, 2023 Order, such that
5 the Motion to Dismiss is now granted with respect to the 1st, 4th, and 5th causes of action
6 and they are dismissed with prejudice; and

7 WHEREAS there are no remaining viable claims, or ones that could plausibly be
8 alleged in an amended complaint;

9 WHEREAS, pursuant to this Court's November 9, 2023 Order, the Parties have 10 met and conferred, and have agreed to the form of this judgment;

11 IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

- 12 1. The entire action is DISMISSED with prejudice as to Plaintiff Brent 13 Scruggs and without prejudice as to the putative class;
- 14 2. Plaintiff shall recover nothing against Defendant; and
- 15 3. Each party shall bear his or its own attorneys' fees and costs
16 incurred in the action.

17
18 IT IS SO ORDERED.

19
20 Dated: November 27, 2023

21
22 _____
23 John A. Kronstadt
24 United States District Judge
25
26
27
28